

Superfan Records

Superfan Records was born out of selfishness. Katrina was tired of trudging out to late night venues for a fix of The Monologue Bombs (solo moniker of Goner's Scott Phillips). She wanted a CD so she could listen at home on lazy Sunday mornings. At The Monologue Bombs CD release party Katrina strode into the place, ten bucks in hand and her fellow music fanatics Anne and Joey in tow. A quick scan of the premises revealed a major problem: no CD! The trio spotted Scott at the bar ...

Katrina: Hey Scott, where's the CD?
Scott: Oh...there aren't any. I ran out of money because—
Katrina: Money? Really? How much do you need?
Scott: Not a whole lot, but—
Katrina: Why don't I give it to you?
Scott: Wow! OK, uh...that means you're a record label. So you gotta have a name.
Katrina: I don't know about that. I'm just a super fan.
Anne: Superfan! That's our name. We're Superfan Records! That's who we are.
Joey: Right on. LET'S DO IT.

Within a week of one fateful night in April 2007 The Monologue Bombs debut record, Beverages + Ghosts was out in the world! Katrina got her way and gets to listen to The Monologue Bombs from the comfort of her own home, whenever she wants!

Superfan Records has also partnered with old friends Regina Hexaphone to release their sophomore record Into Your Sleeping Heart, which will be available in September 2007.

About Superfan Records, LLC

Organic in our inception, grassroots and non-traditional in approach, Superfan Records is a music label and management collaborative based out of Raleigh, NC.

We are a community of music lovers who have come together to help artists get their music out into the world. Through unique partnerships with each artist we help give voice not just to their music but also to their vision of what they'll become.

We learn and teach about how the landscape of the music industry is changing and how musicians and businesses can survive and grow.

We collaborate with artists to record and release records, promote their music, book shows, get investors, lug amps, sell merch... whatever it takes! We work with businesses, venues, graphic designers, members of the media – a plethora of people and resources that help make it all happen.
